

BANGKOK SINGAPORE, 4 DAYS

Day 1. Depart from Bangkok in the evening and settle into the privacy of your well-appointed compartment as your Eastern & Oriental Express journey begins. Watch the sun set over the passing countryside from the comfort of the unique observation car before dressing for dinner. Savour the culinary delights presented by the onboard chefs amid the elegant setting of the restaurant cars, and later enjoy a night cap while being entertained by the resident pianist in the sumptuous bar car. Retire to your compartment which has been converted into a cosy bedroom by your personal steward.

Day 2. As morning breaks in rural Kanchanaburi province, breakfast is served in your cabin. Later, the train arrives at the River Kwai station for passengers to disembark for a river cruise on a local raft, with a historian onboard to provide an overview of the railway and the bridge. At the landing point, travel by motor coach to the Thailand-Burma railway museum and perhaps, a visit to the Don Rak war cemetery. After your visit, return to the train for lunch and a relaxing afternoon. As night descends, enjoy a leisurely cocktail and delicious dinner. Overnight on board.

Day 3. Indulge in a lie-in before breakfast in your cabin as the Eastern & Oriental Express enters Malaysia and a picturesque landscape of limestone massifs rearing from the rice fields. Spend the morning relaxing in the observation car or saloon lounge and watching the passing scenery. Lunch is served before arrival into Kuala Kangsar. Disembark for your guided tour of this fascinating royal town, taking in such sights as the Ubudiah Mosque, reputed to be one of Malaysia's most majestic. Following a view of the Royal Museum of Perak, the tour concludes at the Sultan Shah Gallery. Rejoin the train as it continues southwards through the lush rainforests and the rural west-coast towns of peninsular Malaysia. Prepare to enjoy dinner and an evening in the bar car. Overnight on board.

Day 4. Breakfast is taken in your cabin as the journey nears a close. The train travels through vast oil-palm plantations dotted with traditional settlement homes in the southernmost state of Johor before crossing the causeway over the Straits for a late morning arrival into the cosmopolitan island republic of Singapore.

Departure from Bangkok: 03/01; 26/01; 07/02; 16/02; 25/02; 08/03; 20/03; 29/03; 07/04; 27/04; 09/05; 01/06; 01/07; 28/07; 26/08; 20/09; 29/09; 11/10; 23/10; 01/11; 10/11; 22/11; 01/12; 25/12.

SINGAPORE – BANGKOK, 3 DAYS

Day 1

Passengers gather and check in at the Raffles Hotel (Singapore). The train departs at 3:00 pm. When crossing the border, passengers will not be required to leave the carriages. The train will make an en-route stop in Malaysia's Perak state, where they will be served a welcome dinner.

Day 2

After breakfast, the group will embark on a guided tour around Kuala Kangsar, the residence of his Royal Highness Azlan Shah, the 34th Sultan of Perak. The excursion includes a visit to the Ubudiah Mosque, one of the most deeply revered in the country, and Galeri Sultan Azlan Shah exhibiting the records and artifacts belonging to His Royal Highness. Lunch will be served on the train. When the Express continue his way northward, the passengers will be offered tea to be served in their cabins. To admire the beautiful scenery and authentic rural lifestyle, they may spend some time before dinner in the observation car featuring a large open-air deck.

Day 3

By the time breakfast is served, the passengers will arrive in Thailand. The train will stop in Kanchanaburi, where travelers will be offered an exciting guided tour, visit the famous River Kwai Bridge, a War Museum, and raft down the river. Lunch will be served on the train. After lunch, tea will be offered in private cabins. The approximate time of arrival in Bangkok is 4:45 p.m

Departure dates from Singapore: 04/03; 13/03; 25/03; 03/04; 23/04; 15/09; 25/09; 16/10; 28/10; 06/11; 18/11; 27/11; 21/12; 29/12.

