PHUKET FOR THE WHOLE FAMILY

Family Tour

THREE-DAY PROGRAM, US576*

Day 1.

Pickup from Phuket airport. You are invited to explore the biggest island in Thailand. Your journey will start at the magnificent Big Buddha Hill. The 45 meters (147 feet) tall marble Buddha sits on one of the highest peaks of Nakkerd Hill. Visible from most places in the south of the island, the Big Buddha has become an important religious symbol for Buddhists as well a great tourist attraction with an amazing 360-degree view of the south of Phuket. The day will continue with an elephant show. These intelligent animals demonstrate their kindness to the children and let them enjoy a short but unforgettable elephant ride. Monkey are not as big as elephants but probably even more fun and the monkey show are very popular with kids and adults alike. You will be amazed at their cute tricks and stunts.

Then you will make a pit stop at a local restaurant to refuel yourself while admiring a fabulous view over the island (lunch in not included in the price). The fun will continue with a visit to the Baan Teelanka Upside Down House, one of Phuket's most surprising attractions. In the evening you will visit Fantasea, a cultural theme park offering one of the biggest traditional shows in Phuket. The performance will be capped by dinner. Overnight in Phuket.

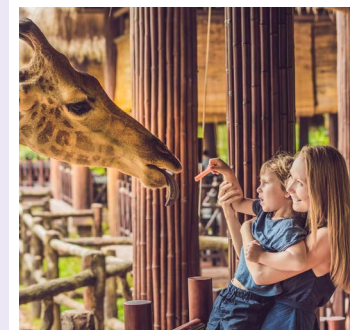

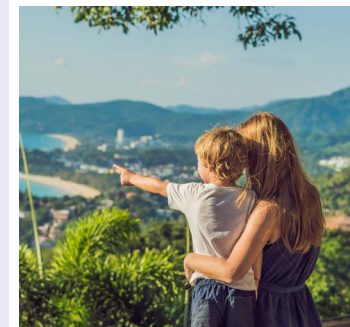

Day 2.

Island hopping. There are many islets around Phuket, and one day is not enough to see all of them. However, we will show you some of the most alluring places. You will set off for Banana Beach on the Coral Island, where you can enjoy swimming in the turquoise waters, snorkeling, sunbathing, and savouring tantalizing Thai dishes served for lunch. Overnight in Phuket.
